VOL. XXXIV.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1906.

NO. 52.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of Eva Bruce Holtzclaw, who died Aug. 27, 1906, aged 15.
Good-bye, sweet Eva, good-bye,
You were so young, so fair to die,
Could we but take one farewell kiss,
But they deny us even this.

Oh, mother-heart, so brave and true,
Almighty power is given you
To give to God the child he gave
And work another's life to save.

Father go on your onward way,
Striving the Master to obey,
Trusting that some day you may know
Why it is He grieves you so.

Brothers and sisters do not despair,
The Master had need of your sister fair,
Scatter sunshine as she has done
And rest will be sweet when your race is run.

Friends of her girlhood's happy years,
Whose eyes are dim with falling tears,
There is a void in your heart that nothing can fill,
You'll never forget dear Eva,
Never can her place you fill.

I shall see her sisters and brothers again

With their playmates about the door
And I'll watch the children at their play
As I never did before.

And if in the group I see a child
That has bright and laughing eyes
I'll look to see if it may not be
Dear Eva, the girl who died.

We all know that dear Eva has left us,
Left us, yes forever more;
How we bear the pain and sorrow
God alone does only know.

Heaven now has got our treasure,
Earth the lonely casket keeps,
But the sunbeams will always linger
Where our darling Eva sleeps.

A LOVING SCHOOLMATE.

KINGSVILLE.

Mr. Ed Boland, of Burnside, representing the Greenbrier Pole Co., was here Tuesday.

The great reunion began yesterday and will last three days. Some good speeches will be made by some of our brilliant men.

Geo. Love, Jr., formerly of this place, was drowned near Burnside by falling from a barge. The body had not been recovered at last accounts.

The county attorney is being highly praised for the manner in which he is looking after affairs in this end of the county. He recognizes his duty and is prompt in executing it.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lenehan, of Ludlow, were guests at Hotel Walter. J. Everard Creighton, of Somerset, spent Sunday with his homefolks here. Morris Walls' baby has been quite sick but is improving.

Mrs. Francis E. Beauchamp delivered a good temperance lecture at the Christian church on last Tuesday evening to an immense crowd as did Rev. Joseph Severance for the same good cause on Friday evening.

Pain from a Bruise Promptly Relieved by Chamberlain's Pain Balm.

A little child of Michael Strauss, of Vernon, Conn., was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to Mr. James N. Nichols, a local merchant, for something to stop the pain. Mr. Nichols says: "I advised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

A Kansas City dispatch says: During the entire 32 years that Jiles M. Farris and Miles J. Farris have been on earth their lives have been parallel. To begin with, they were born twins, and on top of that one was named Jiles and the other Miles, just alike excepting for a transposition in the initial letters. Anyway, they grew to manhood, and both were married, and this to twin sisters in their own town, Louisiana, Mo. Monday a petition for divorce was filed by Jiles M. against Martha A. Farris, and yesterday an attorney appeared at the county courthouse with a petition for divorce for Miles J. Farris from his wife, Attie Farris. Both petitions set forth desertion.

CORNS CURED.—Corn Exit will positively remove corns in four days. The treatment is simple and pleasant and we absolutely guarantee to refund the money to each and every customer whose corns are not promptly removed with entire satisfaction. A bottle of this great preparation only costs 15 cents and nothing if a perfect cure is not speedily effected. G. L. Penny, druggist, Stanford, Ky.

MIDDLEBURG.

George Ellison, who is afflicted with rheumatism, is boarding at Jno. Adams' and attending Olympian Springs.

J. F. Cash has bought the right to operate the Diffe soap business in Lincoln county and will begin advertising at McKinney.

Rev. H. M. Shouse returned from Rocky Ford and reported a good meeting in progress. He says Rev. Betts, who is assisting, is a fine preacher.

Rev. W. G. Tilford will leave us the first of October and go to Louisville to attend the Baptist Theological Seminary. Bro. Tilford is already an excellent preacher without a seminary course.

The meeting at Green River church continues with unabated interest. The night services are attended by large crowds and the attention is said to be good. There have been several additions but we are not advised as to the number.

All the Diffe soap men have left us and they seem to have taken about all the business with them. They are hustlers and did every thing in a hurry. O. L. Wilson has bought the right of this county and has taken charge of the business.

D. A. Thomas has resigned as cashier of the bank here to take charge of the new bank at Lancaster. Mr. Thomas is a splendid business man and has shown his efficiency as a cashier by his excellent management of the Farmers Deposit Bank. He is an all around good fellow and we regret to give him up.

The Senatorial race seems to be all one way in this neck of the woods. It is Beckham breakfast, dinner and supper, with no place for McCreary between meals. Democrats here admire Senator McCreary and appreciate his efficient labors for the democratic party, but they have come to think that he has been honored quite enough.

OTTENHEIM.

The moving fever seems to be contagious as some of our neighbors have moved out and others are talking of it.

The Pine Grove Sunday school gave a most delightful treat to its pupils of candy, cakes and lemonade, much to the pleasure of the little tots.

Wm. Napier and Walter Martin passed through this place on route to Tennessee on a stock trading expedition. James Russell sold a pony to J. Hugh Spratt for $25.

Ledford Siler has bought his mother's home place for $200 and it looks like he is going to call in a helpmeet. Wm. Shaw has sold his farm to Mrs. Julia Pence for $200.

Mrs. Lula Shaw, who has been very low with a complication of troubles, is much improved with good prospects for recovery. I. C. Tucker is rejoicing over the arrival of a 10-pound boy at his house.

Mrs. Sallie Harris, widow of the late J. E. Harris, died on the 5th and was laid to rest in the Pine Grove burying ground after a funeral sermon by Eld. J. G. Livingston. The deceased leaves six children, the youngest only six years old. May the Lord, who is the parent of all, guide and protect their future lives.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

To keep ice a long time, take six or eight newspapers, place them in the ice box, have the ice put on top, wrap ice as one would a shoe box or a package; then if the ice box is not full, stuff well with crumpled paper around edges. The ice will last twice as long and do the same work.

Gov. Luke P. Blackburn, whose reputation as a physician and philanthropist is too well known to need further comment, once said "Concentrated Crab Orchard Water is the best aperient known to the medical profession and will cure more diseases than any one remedy I have ever used." Get a bottle of White's Diamond Brand Crab Orchard Water. For sale by all druggists and country stores.

The name of John W. Yerkes, of Kentucky, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, is mentioned in connection with the vacancy on the bench of the District Court of Appeals created by the resignation of Judge Duell, of New York, says a Washington dispatch.

The laxative effect of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is so agreeable and so natural you can hardly realize that it is produced by a medicine. These tablets also cure indigestion and biliousness. Price 25c. Samples free at Stanford Drug Co.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, Stanford, Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Two men the other day in Chicago drank a bottle of beer in their room at a hotel and it cost them $2,500. After drinking the beer the men were found in their room in a stupor and they had been robbed of $2,500 in cash and negotiable checks. The beer had been drugged.

We almost shed tears during the campaign of 1903, when we heard Mr. McCreary and Mr. Hays tell how the wicked, lying Republicans were slandering the incomparable Beckham. Letcher County News.

"Uncle Reub" Visits His Son in Illinois and Tells What he has Seen.

MT. AUBURN, ILL., Sept. 7.—When the last issue of the "cheapest and best"—of course the INTERIOR JOURNAL—was handed me by a messenger from the postoffice, home and St. Asaph environment were uppermost; not without a slight twinge of home sickness, delightful as are the surroundings and ministrations of loved ones. After nearly two years I again enjoy a landscape view which fills a granger's breast with inevitable envy and I imagine would enthrall a painter. Far as I can see are farm houses and small clusters of shade and fruit trees dotting the perspective ocean of cornfields, varied here and there with oats stubble and small pastures for the few horses, hogs and milk cows which suffice the grain growers. Whilst local rains prevailed during the summer the little of this amazingly fertile region that has been traversed in daytime has suffered little and the fields appear dangerously green for so nearly the period that killing frosts occur. One farmer has counted an average row of his corn field, carefully estimating size, and confidently anticipates 24 barrels per acre. While I have not seen a bunch of beef cattle on pasture, about 50 yearlings of 800 or 900 pounds were driven through town yesterday and I will only say in description of them that the sight of them would start a flow of saliva from Monte Fox and Jim Ed Bruce like a sugar tree tapped in spring time.

To illustrate leaps and bounds of advancing valuation of lands, a farm that brought $42 an acre eight years ago was taken down a few days since at $135—held for $150. It is surprising to see the rich green of nearly all vegetation here when defoliation in Kentucky is so advanced. It may be that varieties afford explanation but it is conspicuous that varieties of grape vines that were almost leafless when I left home are here without a discolored leaf, as rank, luxuriant foliage as in May.

Just about here the roads are all dirt and in ideal condition now, but "no bottom" is the order when not frozen in winter and a suggestion of hard roads to farmers is as exasperating as red rags to bulls or "bloody shirts" to our northern philanthropists.

Mack Huffman would not recognize a Goldust strain in many of the pleasure driving horses. The Percheron predominates and the speed suggests Red John's old sorrel of old times, and Judge Saulley's old Button. But the good people of this favored corner appear to realize that they will probably be dead an indefinitely long time and common sense policy encourages garnering some of the good things in sight. Comfort and convenience out weigh conventionalities, and this citizenship certainly appears a favorite of the fates, sensibly alive to the fact that an executor or administrator will eventually be unable to reach them by phone as to interpretation of ambiguous clauses.

Like a few of Lincoln county's enterprising farmers, it seems an unwritten law to leave farm machinery hung up in fence rows and vehicles unsheltered for the benefit of washing by rains and drying by wind and sun.

At manufacturing centers Labor Day was religiously—if reluctantly—observed by all who handle stuff with a union label, but the lid could be pried off by the invalid who had a prescription, and his name was Hosts on that day. I had nothing stronger than coffee suggested.

Teddy has administered a fabulously prosperous time for farmers in providing favorable conditions over nearly all the grain and cotton growing belts. Of course some unavoidably failed of an equitable distribution over the whole country—too big for that—and some died while others drowned out.

Tell Harve Helm I haven't seen a man who needs "to be seen" to get him to the polls at the proper time, and our young governor soars in the esteem of these suckers despite his inability to provide Hoosier material for a neck tie party that many good people say should be pulled off without proper frills.

Sincerely yours,
UNCLE REUB.
